Privacy and your personal information

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles, and is being collected by the Australian Government Department of Health (the department), through your employer, for the primary purpose of verifying you are eligible for a payment under the Aged Care Registered Nurses' Payment Grant Program. The personal information that will be collected is your name and your Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) registration number. This personal information will be used during the Aged Care Registered Nurses' Payment Grant assessment period to check if you are registered as a Registered Nurse on AHPRA's public 'Register of practitioners.

Your information may be collected to be used by external auditors for the purpose of confirming your eligibility for the payment and that your employer has passed on your payment. In undertaking these audits, the department will only seek the minimum amount of personal information required such as length of employment, hours of work, location of work (e.g. Metropolitan, rural or remote area), evidence of formal post-graduate qualifications, evidence of additional training responsibilities and evidence of payment being made to you.

Under clause 13.2 of the Grant Opportunity Guidelines, the provider (your employer) is required to declare any conflicts of interest (for the provider or any of the provider's personnel) at the time of submitting their application for the Grant and any conflicts that might arise after they receive the Grant. This may involve providers disclosing personal information about potential conflicts of interest in respect of an eligible Registered Nurses. As such, the department may also collect personal information about eligible Registered Nurses included in any conflict of interest declarations required to be submitted

If you do not allow for the department to use your information collected from your employer through the Grant application, Grant assessors may not be able to confirm your registration status as a Registered Nurse which may lead to a delay in confirming your eligibility, and you receiving the payment.

You can get more information about the way in which the Department of Health will manage your personal information,
